WOMAN'S DESPERATE ACT TO SETTLE THE STRIKE

Chicago Woman Tried to Jump Under Automobile Conveying President Taft to His Hotel.

(Herald Special.)

Chicago, Ill., March 17.—An aged woman attempted to jump under the auto in which President Taft was riding en route to his hotel this morning.
She broke through the line of guards and threw herself in front of the approaching auto. The machine was stopped just in time to prevent an accident, and the woman was hurried away by the police. The day here began like the Donny Brook fair. A wireless telephone lineman jumped on the rear platform of the president's private car and insisted on putting in a wireless phone for the president, insisting that he be permitted to see the president. He was also taken in charge by the secret service men.
One feature of the parade was a large auto filled with woman suffragettes accompanied by a brass band playing "Wearing of the Green." The incident caused much merriment.

The woman who threw herself before the Taft auto gives her name as Mrs. Jennie Mud, and says she is sixty-five years old. She declared that President Taft and St. Patrick are the biggest men who ever lived, and that she wanted to ride with the president. Her sanity is being inquired into.

President Getting Wise.

(Herald Special.)

Chicago, March 17.—President Taft delivered two speeches during the noon hour, one to the newspaper representatives and one to the traffic clubs. The president, in talking to the newspaper men, declared he was glad to meet the plowhands of the Chicago newspapers and others represented. He criticized the hypocrisy of the editorials he reads daily, but says his skin is thickening and that he can now stand what the papers are pleased to say of him. He declared he had learned more in the one year's service as president than he expected to learn in three years. He added that the people are fair-minded and a judge of the facts when they get them, and that he is willing that the truth be told.

Bullinger-Pinchot Committee to Finish its Task and Submit Report.
Witnesses Called.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., March 17.—The congressional committee expects to complete its investigation into the Bullinger-Pinchot squabble at an early date and may submit its report to congress, or the committee members may decide to go to Alaska in person and investigate the claims made by the opposing factions. Several members of the Guggenheim syndicate have been subpoenaed to appear before the committee to reiterate the statements heretofore made. Pinchot may also be recalled, together with a number of magazine writers.

SUSPENDS CORN DUTY.

Mexican Corn Crop Last Year Was a General Failure.

(Herald Special.)

San Antonio, Texas, March 17.—In order to alleviate the conditions of the poor who have suffered considerably through a general failure of the corn crop last year, due to excessive rainfall and floods, the Mexican government has decided to take off all duty on corn for another limited period. This is the second time within the current year that this has been done.

To Remain on Special Duty.

Washington, D. C., March 17.—By operation of law Rear Admiral William Swift, recently in command of the Charlestown navy yard, was placed on the retired list today. Secretary Meyer, however, has decided to retain him on special duty in the navy department for a while in order that he may not lose the benefit of the special experience and knowledge of Rear Admiral Swift in his plans for the reorganization of the department. Rear Admiral Swift is a native of Connecticut and has been in the navy since his graduation from the Annapolis Academy in 1867.

Knapp and Neill Arrive.

(Herald Special.)

Chicago, Ill., March 17.—Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission and Commissioner of Labor Neill have arrived and are preparing to bring the firemen and the railroad managers together at the earliest possible moment. The government officials express hope of being able to bring about an amicable adjustment of the troubles, and both sides of the controversy are hopeful that they will succeed. The railroad offices are being flooded with telegrams from all sections of the west urging that the strike be averted, if possible.

MINISTER ASSAULTED

At Santo Domingo By Costello, a Brother of the Governor of the Province.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., March 17.— Horace G. Knowles, minister to Santo Domingo, was assaulted today while riding by Costello, a brother of the governor of the province, according to advice received by the state department. His assailant was arrested. All the ministers to the Dominican government called at the legation during the day to express their regrets at the assault. Authorities say Costello is insane.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Has Been Guaranteed Mormons in the Republic of Mexico.

(Herald Special.)

San Antonio, Texas, March 17.— The fact that the Mexican government has guaranteed religious freedom to the Mormons settling in the republic may ultimately result in a general exodus of that creed from the United States. A colony of them has been established at San Carlos, opposite Eagle Pass, Texas, and it is understood that negotiations for the purchase of more land in Mexico are going on. The San Carlos colony was formerly located in the state of Chihuahua, and moved because the land it had could not be brought under irrigation. It consisted of about one hundred families and is very prosperous. The tract owned by it on the San Carlos ranch comprises twelve thousand acres and is irrigated from the Rio Grande.
